DonorsResource.org's Founder
Awarded Portland Business Journal's
"40 under 40"

In acknowledgement of the short turnaround success in distributing more than 20,000 household items to families in need

Lake Oswego, Oregon, March 21, 2008 – DonorsResource.org, today announced that Portland Business Journal awarded Della Rosenthal, founder of DonorsResource.org, "40 under 40" that recognizes outstanding Portland's business leaders under 40 years of age.

Rosenthal received the award in acknowledgement of her innovative online charity model that connects donors with non-profit agencies in need of goods and resources. In addition, the newspaper recognized her previous achievement as a founder of Sisters of the Community in collecting and distributing more than 20,000 household items to families in need only in 18 months.

"Out of the many worthwhile non-profit organizations in Oregon, it is an honor to be recognized by the leading business newspaper in the state," said Rosenthal of the award. "The ideals of community services are alive and well."
